Schnierles Open
New Restaurant
Near Mt. Vernon

DOUBLE TRUCK FOR BUCK. A double truck in newspaper parlance is a double-page advertisement. In the Nov. 23 issue of the Mt. Vernon (Ill.) Register-News is a double truck announcing the opening of a new restaurant there by Buck and Lucille Schnierle, Harrisburg residents who still operate on the north side of the local square.

And there's a news story about the modern new restaurant located next to the Beasley Motel on the Salem road, which is Route 13 north of Mt. Vernon.

Open house was held last Friday.

A BANKER NOW: Wayne Green, who owns the Stricklin Paint and Wallpaper store in Harrisburg and Green's Paint and Wallpaper store in Marion, now is a banker as well as a merchant.

Green, a Harrisburg man who moved to Marion several years ago, is vice president of the new Bank of Egypt at 201 West Main street in Marion, which opened Saturday.

This modern bank building is a block off the square and is built to make things easier for the drive-in customers. There are two drive-in windows and easy-to-use parking facilities for customers adjoining the bank.

Charles D. Winters is president of the bank and Harold Pangborn is its executive vice president and cashier.

KUMA COX was telling me about her trip back from Paducah Saturday night. Coming back on the new road from Dixon Springs the conversation got around to a story in the Register several weeks ago about a deer which stopped on the pavement and which started to attack the car when a driver halted to avoid hitting it.

Everybody in the car got in on the conversation about never seeing a deer along the road when suddenly Kuma saw in front of her a deer. She had to apply her brakes to keep from hitting it but it went on without charging at the automobile. Guess it was in a better mood than the other one.

Rutland, Ill., Fire Destroys Four Buildings

RUTLAND, Ill. — Fire early today destroyed four brick buildings housing three business establishments, the Post Office, old Opera House and Masonic Hall.

One fireman suffered a gash on his chin when he slipped on a patch of ice while fighting the blaze.

Minok Fire Chief G. H. Leffers said it would cost several hundred thousand dollars to replace the buildings but actual current property values were much lower than that in this La Salle County town of 500.

The fire broke out in the basement of Stenger's Grocery, he said, swept upward and was spread by a 25 mile an hour wind.

The fire was discovered about 3 a. m. when Stephen Francisco and his wife, who occupy living quarters at the rear of their tavern adjacent to the grocery, heard falling plaster in the grocery.

The Rutland fire fighters brought the town's old pumper to the scene and summoned the Minok department.

Leffers said his men were handicapped by lack of water since the Minok pumper drew too much water for the capacity of the Rutland water system.

J. O. Kimbro, 71, Dies at Ridgway

JAMES OSCAR KIMBRO, 71, died suddenly at his home in Ridgway Monday morning.

He was unmarried and is survived by two brothers, Roy Kimbro, Harrisburg, and Walter Kimbro of Alton.

The body is at the Smith and Edwards funeral chapel in Ridgway at which place the funeral will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. Rev. Joseph Harris, pastor of the Ridgway Methodist church, will officiate, and burial will be in Jackson cemetery in Ridgway.

Expect Faure To Lose Vote Of Confidence

Communists to Withdraw Support
In Showdown Ballot

BULLETIN

PARIS — Premier Edgar Faure was defeated in an attempt to win a sixth straight vote of confidence in the National Assembly tonight.

PARIS — Communist leader Jacques Duclos announced officially today that the Reds would vote against Premier Edgar Faure in a showdown confidence vote. He boasted that the vote tonight would overthrow Faure's government.

"The Communists will vote against the government and thus seal its defeat," Duclos said in a speech in the National Assembly.

The Red move apparently meant that Faure was doomed in his attempt to save his 179-day-old government. The support of the 90-odd Communist deputies was the only factor that prevented his defeat in a confidence vote two weeks ago.

The 47-year-old Faure began his last plea at 6 a. m. for an immediate debate on early French elections.

Faure demanded that the assembly approve nationwide elections months before its term runs out in June. All indications were it would refuse and that President Rene Coty would face the difficult task of selecting France's 22nd premier since the end of World War II.

The National Assembly hoped to cause Faure's downfall on a general debate on government policies. But he demanded the vote of confidence on the election issue to embarrass the politicians.

Faure tried at first to have general elections in December but in the face of strong opposition called for elections on March 4 and 11.

Faure openly hinted that he expected the confidence vote to end his regime. When one of his constituents praised his work thus far, Faure replied: "It isn't customary for the corpse to reply to a funeral oration."

Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France, a member of the same Radical Socialist Party but an implacable enemy, was leaving for the United States for a lecture tour and probably would not have time to cast his ballot against Faure.

Even before the vote there was speculation that Coty would nominate a country doctor, Henri Queuille, a former premier, to try to form a new government.

Stratton Names Five to Investigate Mining Laws

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Appointment of five men to the Mining Law Investigating Commission was announced today by Governor William G. Stratton.

They are: R. B. Cochran, Chicago, president of the Blue Bird Coal company; H. C. McCollum, Springfield, vice president of the Peabody Coal company; Felix Goodnick, Belleville; Sherman Whitlow, Benton; and Dr. John C. Frye, Urbana, chief of the Illinois Geological Survey.

The commission was established this year by the 69th General Assembly to investigate necessary changes in the Coal Mining Act, with special reference to the safety of human lives and property and the conservation of coal deposits. The legislature stipulated that two members of the commission were to be coal mine operators, two coal miners and the fifth not identified with the interests of either.

Representing the operators on the new commission are Cochran and McCollum. Goodnick, a member of the Progressive Mine Workers of America, and Whitlow, member of United Mine Workers union, are miners. Dr. Frye is the public member.

The commission, granted an appropriation of $5,000 for its work, will be liquidated on July 1, 1957, following its report to the governor and the next General Assembly.

Order Full Crews Into Orient Mine

WALTONVILLE, Ill. — The Freeman Coal Mining Corp., ordered full crews back to its Orient Mine No. 3 near here today.

At Chicago, Executive Vice President Frank Nugent said production was two-thirds of normal now, and that full production was expected within a few days. Crew members not mining were assigned to clean-up operations from the fire which closed the mine last Oct. 14.

The fire broke out when a coal buggy shorted an electric cable, and forced a four-week shut-down after mine rescue teams sealed off the area to smother the fire. A check last week showed the flames had been extinguished.

CLEARED OF BLAME—Mrs. William Woodward, Jr., is comforted by attorney Murray Gurlein as she enters court at Mineola, N. Y., where a Nassau County grand jury found her blameless in connection with the death of her millionaire socialite husband, Mrs. Woodward had testified that she shot her husband last Oct. 30 in a darkened hallway of their Long Island home, thinking that the form she saw was a prowler. ### Four Illinois 4-H Members Win Scholarships

CHICAGO — Four Illinois 4-H club members won $300 scholarships today at the National 4-H Club Congress.

The winners are Mary Ann Mattingly, 20, Paris; Eugene Schick, 19, Elgin; Larry Lewis, 17, Ursa; and Loren Boppert, 20, Woodstock. Miss Mattingly was honored for her performance in the club's record award program, designed to teach girls how to be intelligent homemakers. She has been a member of the club for 11 years and is a junior at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods college.

To win the scholarship, Miss Mattingly completed 38 club projects in all phases of home economics.

Lewis, an eight-year member of the club, had entered the 4-H field crops program. While farming 149 acres, he has won numerous championships for his entries of grains and vegetables. He is a junior in high school and hopes to enter the certified seed business.

Schick won his scholarship for his work in the tractor maintenance program. He has attended four tractor schools and has received the American Farmer Degree at this year's Future Farmers of America convention.

Boppert has devoted three of his six club years to electricity which was the program in which his scholarship was awarded. His chief project was the complete rewiring of a dairy farm. A high school graduate, he plans to go on to college.

Drive Safely Every Day, Mayor Gibbons Says in S-D Day Plea

The President's Committee for Traffic Safety again is sponsoring a special day dedicated to safe driving—S-D Day—on Dec. 1 and every effort is being made to reduce the tragedy and waste of traffic accidents.

With this thought in mind, Mayor and Mrs. Gibbons declared that although one day a year is set aside for this worthwhile effort, "we shouldn't stop with just one day—let us drive safely every day."

One insurance company—Washington National—is having its field men hand out red tags as reminders of S-D Day, to be worn on the lapel or displayed some other place where it can be seen.

Workers Vote To End New Castle Strike

Ratify Two-Year
Agreement by Narrow Margin

NEW CASTLE, Ind. — CIO United Auto Workers at the Perfect Circle Corp. foundry voted by a narrow margin today to end their bloody four-month strike which brought National Guard troops and tanks to this city twice in seven weeks.

The vote was 86-72.

It came on a secret ballot after a closed-door meeting lasting nearly 2½ hours.

There was no indication immediately when the strikers would go back to their jobs.

Emil Mazey, UAW international secretary, told newsmen after the meeting, which was called to ratify a two-year agreement reached in Chicago Monday, that the union would "do all we can to put the community back together again."

Struck Last July

He referred to violence and bloodshed which occurred since the strike started last July 25 and brought a declaration of martial law after an Oct. 5 gun battle between strikers and non-strikers who kept the foundry operating during the walkout.

Leaders of the striking CIO United Auto Workers urged acceptance of the settlement, which grants a 10-cent hourly wage increase but does not include the strikers' demand for a union shop.

The negotiators "compromised" the issue of the reinstatement of 35 strikers discharged for alleged acts of violence. The company agreed to take back 20 of the men immediately, reinstate 8 others after 30-day suspensions, and submit the cases of the remaining 7 to arbitration.

Another Raise Coming

Other company concessions included the granting of an additional 7-cent hourly raise on July 1, 1956. The 10-cent boost had already been in effect for non-strikers.

Bitterness in the strike against the automotive parts plant had mounted steadily until it erupted into a two-hour pitched gun battle Oct. 5 between strikers and non-strikers.

Nine persons were wounded and Gov. George N. Craig ordered 1,000 National Guardsmen into the strike zone. Five days later, full martial law was imposed on a three-city "strike area" to guard against rumored outbreaks of violence when the company announced it would re-open its plants.

Tension gradually relaxed and two weeks ago the last of the troops were withdrawn. But sporadic violence broke out again almost immediately and 90 guardsmen were ordered back into New Castle last Wednesday to enforce limited martial law.

The last act of violence in the long strike came Saturday, when a car smashed through a roadblock and tried to run down some troopers.

Meanwhile, negotiations were resumed Oct. 31 in Chicago under the auspices of the Federal Mediation Service. Union officials had refused to negotiate in New Castle so long as the troops were present.

UAW officials said they would recommend the resulting agreement as a "basis for settlement" of the walkout. They had hoped to meet with the strikers Monday night, but were prevented by snow and icy roads.

Four Saline County Men Begin State Police Training

Four Saline county men—three from Harrisburg and one from Eldorado—are among 31 student patrolmen who started training yesterday at the State Police Academy on the Illinois State fairgrounds, Superintendent Phil M. Brown announced.

They are William C. Cooper, Everett E. Estes and Roger Allen Young of Harrisburg and Thurman E. Yates of Eldorado.

Other southern Illinois trainees include Fred L. Stille of McLeansboro, Clinton Dale Masser of Carlini and Robert G. Kezely of Du Quoin.

According to Lt. Francis E. Pipper, director of training at the school, graduation exercises will be scheduled for a date in December to be announced later.

While attending the school, trainees receive room and board and are paid on the basis of a $145 per month salary. The academy will continue until sufficient new troopers have been trained to fill the added State Highway Police complement of 600 men. The State Police force was increased from 500 to 600 by an act of the legislature recommended by Gov. William G. Stratton.

Eisenhower to Attend Security Council Meeting At Camp David Thursday

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will drive to Camp David, Md., Thursday to attend a two-hour meeting of the National Security Council.

Although this represents a change in plans, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty emphasized that no emergency is involved.

"This is just the regular meeting of the National Security Council," Hagerty told newsmen, "and the President wanted to attend it."

This will be the second council session held at the presidential retreat near Thurmont, Md., since the President's arrival here Nov. 14.

At the earlier session two weeks ago, top government officials were flown to the mountain-top retreat by helicopter to confer with Mr. Eisenhower on military and foreign affairs. Hagerty said he believed some of them again will make the trip this way.

Originally, the President had not planned to attend this week's security council meeting, which was to have been held in Washington. He had planned to attend next week's session at Camp David and to remain overnight, as he did before, to meet with his Cabinet.

Nixon Presides Friday

This week's cabinet meeting, as originally planned, will be held in Washington Friday, with Vice President Richard M. Nixon presiding.

Hagerty also announced another addition to the President's schedule for this week. He said Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes will see the President Thursday morning for what Hagerty called "a continuing discussion of the budget."

The President had planned to put in a brief stint of paper work at his downtown Gettysburg office today. But he changed his mind in view of the 20-degree weather and the lack of major business to transact. Instead, he asked his secretary to drop by the farm to take some dictation.

High Standards Required

The order applies only to officials who take unpaid government posts under the Defense Production Act. It forbids them from advising the government when their own firms are involved. It also requires them to function under greater public security and to "abide by the same high standards of conduct" demanded of other federal officials.

The proposals which the Soviets have put before the United Nations call for a total ban on nuclear weapons and their removal from national arms stockpiles.

WASHINGTON — American officials today dismissed as "more propaganda" Russia's offer to stop testing A-bombs and H-bombs if other atomic powers quit too.

Officials here said the Soviet offer is undoubtedly designed to counteract the bad world reaction which has followed Russia's recent explosion of its biggest H-bomb.

Scientists in Japan and Europe reported today that radioactivity in the atmosphere had been increased—although not dangerously—by atomic explosions presumably originating in the Soviet Union.

H. G. Bramlet of Near Eldorado Dies

HORACE G. BRAMLET, 69, well-known Saline county farmer and retired miner who lived three miles west of Eldorado, died last night at 8:30 in the Welborn Baptist Memorial hospital in Evansville, Ind.

He leaves his wife, Mamie, and four children: Kendall and Thomas Clifton Bramlet, Mrs. Herman Sutton and Miss Georgia Bramlet, all of Eldorado, and one brother, Harry A. Bramlet, also of Eldorado.

The body lies in state at the Martin funeral home in Eldorado.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Martin funeral home. Rev. O. C. Cooper will officiate and burial will be in Wolf Creek cemetery.

Farmers to Enter 1956 with Larger Debts, More Assets, Ag Dep't Says

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department said today many farmers will enter 1956 with larger debts, less cash, but more assets than a year earlier.

The explanation for this paradox, the department said, "lies in the value of farm real estate which has continued to rise in 1955 despite lower farm income." Describing the farm real estate situation as "unusual," the department's periodical, "The Agricultural Finance Outlook for 1956," said it apparently stemmed from:

"The desire of farmers to enlarge their farms; more liberal loan policies of some mortgage lenders; generally favorable crop outlook in 1955; the favorable outlook for the economy at large; and the expectation that the demand for farmland will be favorable in the long run, partly because of a continued high rate of population growth in the United States."

The farm financial outlook was issued in the midst of the 33rd annual Agricultural Outlook Conference. This is a meeting of state extension economists and educators for a review of current

Secretary Says Debate Will Be Welcomed

Warns Against
'Politicking' Which Would Aid Enemies

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles appealed to both Republicans and Democrats today to keep foreign policy out of the 1956 election campaign because of the aid "a domestic political battle" would give to America's enemies.

"Those hostile to the United States and its ideals are not going to take a vacation so that we can here safely concentrate on a domestic political battle," Dulles told a news conference.

Dulles said only "peril" could flow from "careless or uninformed indulgence in partisan excesses" during the coming campaign. He warned against any "politicking" which could provide Russia and the communist world with unusual opportunities for gain.

Welcomes Constructive Debate

Dulles said there undoubtedly will be debate on foreign policy. He said this debate is welcome so long as it is constructive and conducted in a way that will not endanger the nation.

Dulles thus added his voice to that of President Eisenhower, who appealed Saturday for bipartisan unity in foreign policy.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler said Monday that Democrats would be happy to join in a "truce" but said the Republicans should first stop "exploiting" foreign policy by making a major political issue out of the claim that the Eisenhower administration has achieved peace.

Dulles appealed for "the same bipartisan unity which in the past has given authority, vitality and much success to our foreign policies."

Dulles refused to criticize any Democrat for foreign policy attacks. He insisted he will not be drawn into political wrangling during the campaign. But he left the door open to reply later to specific charges if he feels it necessary.

Others Join In
An increasing number of other Republicans were joining in with statements that foreign policy should be kept out of partisan politics.

Sens. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.), ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Affairs committee, and Frederick G. Payne (R-Me.) were the latest to make such a plea.

But the man who took the lead last week in urging that foreign policy not be made a political football in 1956 — Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.) — said he did not mean the administration should be exempt from "constructive criticism" of its policy.

Approves Constructive Criticism

"So long as this criticism of our foreign policy is healthy and constructive, I have no fault to find with it," George told the Washington Post and Times Herald by telephone from Vienna, Ga.

"My concern is that no substantial issue be taken with our basic foreign policy course, which has begun under Democratic auspices and which Mr. Eisenhower's administration has largely followed. I hope that no issue is taken that could lead our next president to depart from the course we are presently pursuing."

George said that "thus far" he has "heard nothing" in preliminary speeches by presidential possibilities that conflicts with his idea of constructive criticism.

Charles Gentry, 49, Dies Suddenly

Mr. Gentry was employed by the Harrisburg Ice Co., and resided with his mother, Mrs. Martha Gentry at 403 Dayton street.

His body was taken to the Gaskins home in Harrisburg, from which funeral arrangements will be announced Wednesday.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

I have said, ye are God's sons of the Most High. — Ps. 82:6.

Modern psychologists agree that the subconscious mind is infallible and omniscient. Of this most mortals have only a faint glimmer. The voice of conscience is indeed the voice of God. We should heed it.

Russian Smile Fades

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

The "Geneva Spirit" is a phrase that will pass into the lexicon of history along with the other fashions and fancies of 1955. When it was conceived in midsummer, men the world over hoped it would soon be translated into the substance of real peace. But instead those hopes are now dashed.

They died at the second Geneva conference which was to begin casting the new spirit into the flesh and blood of solid agreements between the West and East. They died because the men in the Kremlin quite plainly never had any intention of making a settlement except on their own totally unacceptable terms.

The only kind of German unity the Russians favor is a unity that would see West Germany detached from NATO, kept unarmed, and left politically neutral. In that position, the Germans would be prey to the full power of Communist subversive and propaganda forces, backed by the ever-present threat of a Red Army poised not far distant.

The only sort of disarmament the Soviet Union is for is the sort which would offer the phony appearance of enforcement and a misleading token reduction in armed strength.

Even on so relatively secondary a matter as improved contact between East and West, the Russians showed interest only in those things which would benefit them — removal of trade restrictions affecting Communist lands and a step-up of technical information flowing from West to East.

From all this it is thoroughly evident that, despite the broad smiles of the Russian leaders, they have not changed one iota. They still press as hard as ever for goals which have but one meaning — ultimate world domination by the masters of communism.

It may be true, as it seemed at the first Geneva meeting, that the Kremlin leaders understand the folly of nuclear war as a means of achieving their end. But it is equally true that they have not forsaken any other weapon or device in the pursuit of their aims.

They are trapped by the iron dictates of their Communist philosophy. It preaches the final triumph of communism, and in this the men of the Kremlin stoutly and publicly proclaim their faith.

Believing that, they cannot yield what they firmly hold. To Communists it is good sense to yield only when advantage has passed elsewhere, when cold appraisal indicates a particular strategy no longer serves. But the battle is never really broken off. It is simply shifted to another front.

The 1955 tactic of the high level smile was one of the most striking and perhaps most effective shifts the Russians ever have employed. But in the end it can be seen by all for what it is, even by the most glib neutralists. It is the same old cold war, dressed inconspicuously in the warm smile.

To men who believe as the Russians do, there can be no other course than the one they follow. And every stratagem of deception they use, no matter how artful, is doomed finally to failure. For the rigid logic of their purpose compels them sooner or later to show their true hand.

At Geneva we have seen it once more. The elaborate charade is over. The Russians may drop the mask of the smile now, for it can serve them no longer. The real shape of the struggle is seen again, and Communists will be hard put to find a new way to conceal it.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Air Force General Faces Charge Of Aiding One Insurance Company; He Also Helped A Pet Housing Project; Author Of Brannan Plan Will Run For The Senate.

WASHINGTON. — An Air Force General has been charged with operating an arrangement whereby he used his staff to sell houses in a housing project near his base and wouldn't let GI's park their cars on his base unless they bought insurance from a pet insurance company.

The officer in question is Maj. Gen. Byron Gates, former commander of Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., who faces, among other things, a formal charge by the Air Force that "he accepted $7,000 from the life insurance company for services to be rendered by him because of his official position."

General Gates, who was retired for age, has now been recalled to active duty and a preliminary hearing on the charges has been held. When queried by this column, General Gates said he could make no comment while the matter was under consideration by the Air Force and referred all questions to his attorney, James H. Wheat of Champaign. Wheat also said he could not comment, but said he was confident General Gates would be vindicated.

Here is some of the evidence Air Force investigations have dug up in connection with charges formally lodged against General Gates.

The insurance firm he is charged with favoring is the Illinois Automobile Insurance Company, which includes among its directors state legislator Ora Dillavou of Urbana, GOP Chairman of the House Appropriations committee, and State Senator Everett Peters of St. Joseph, GOP chairman of the Illinois Budgetary Commission. They also organized the Illinois American Fire Insurance Co. and the Illinois American Casualty Co.

NO INSURANCE—NO PARKING. The formal and official charges against General Gates state: "That he provided office space and made official files available to agents of auto insurance companies," also.

"That he urged personnel under his command to purchase stock of a life insurance company and that he gave the life insurance company exclusive rights to sell insurance in one area of the base."

What happened, according to the Air Force investigation, was that General Gates ordered airmen to buy auto liability insurance if they wanted to drive their cars onto the Chanute base.

In order words, if an airman didn't buy insurance he couldn't get parking space on the base, had to walk farther and pay for parking space.

"In most cases," read General Gates' notice to servicemen, "the privilege of being able to bring one's car on the base will save the airman in three or four months in parking fees to cover his cost of insurance for a whole year."

Naturally business for Gates' friends, the Illinois Auto Insurance Co., zoomed. Significantly, the company used General Gates' ex-adjutant, ex-Major B. F. Daniel, to handle its insurance sales at Chanute Field.

Furthermore, the general graciously launched a safe-driving campaign as the insurance was being sold. He even got the state of Illinois to reduce the speed limit.

it on the highway outside the base.

While this had the noble purpose of reducing accidents, it also reduced claims which the insurance had to pay. It was just good business all the way round. This is one reason why the Air Force formally charges Gates with receiving $7,000.

PLEASANT ACRES

The formal charge against General Gates regarding the housing project states: "That he had civil service and military personnel do work in connection with a housing project near the base while they were being paid by the government."

The housing project in question is "Pleasant Acres," a private sub-development. General Gates put up $5,000 of his own money to get the option on the land for Pleasant Acres, and claims he did this in his zeal to get housing for the boys. He also claims he was repaid.

He assigned one of his officers, Capt. Prentice Ligon, to help sell Pleasant Acres homes and his secretary accepted $500 down payments from airmen buying the homes. Both Ligon and his secretary, of course, drew their salaries, not from Pleasant Acres, but from Uncle Sam.

Significantly, Captain Ligon, after 16 years in the Air Force, has now quit, and gone to work for General Gates' friends, the Illinois Automobile Insurance company. Congressman Les Arends of Illinois, House Republican whip and presidential golfing partner, also got into the Pleasant Acres act. The congressman, one of the most potent GOP leaders on Capitol Hill, wrote letters and made phone calls to the Pentagon on behalf of Pleasant Acres, also persuaded Air Force headquarters to send two housing experts to Illinois to inspect the project.

They reported back that Pleasant Acres homes did not measure up to Air Force standards. They didn't oppose the project, however, on the ground that below-standard homes are better than none at all.

When Congressman Arends was queried by this column regarding a report that General Gates had contributed $5,000 to his campaign through builder Ozier's attorney, John Franklin, he denied.

At first he also denied that he had written letters or contacted the Pentagon regarding Pleasant Acres. Later he admitted that he had. He explained that he was interested in any project that would help the boys at Chanute.

"Why are you so interested in Chanute Field when it's not in your district," the congressman was asked.

"It's right next door to my district," he replied, "and certainly a part of the state of Illinois."

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Texas move fast. After Senator Kefauver shot a buck at 300 paces near the ranch of Sen. Lyndon Johnson at 7 a. m., Wesley West, a neighbor, presented Kefauver with an engraved Magnum 300 rifle—the type he used to shoot the deer—at 4:30 p. m. It read: "Anyone who uses a gun this well ought to have it to keep."

Kefauver had shot two deer in earlier years — one in Tennessee, one in Florida. Kefauver and Johnson haven't been too friendly in the Senate, but had a genial, downright friendly visit in Texas. Lyndon suggested the visit. He told Estes he wasn't any king-maker, was only interested in keeping a strong Democratic balance in the Senate. The Shivers-liberal Democratic feud in Texas, he thinks, will be patched up.

Charley Brannan, the ex-secretary of agriculture whose famous Brannan farm plan was castigated by Ike as "moral bankruptcy" but adopted by Ike for work, is definitely going to run for the Senate in Colorado. Politics generally agreed Gov. Averell Harriman upped his prospects by his pithy

Chicago speech and by assuming the political offensive afterward. After chiding Adlai on favoring "the middle way" he went out to the northwest and showed he wasn't for the middle way in regard to Hell's Canyon and the big utilities.

MORE FLAVOR PER CUP

Folger's starts with more than good coffee. They choose only Mountain-Grown coffees, coffees that nature makes richer, heartier, more flavorful. They blend and prepare them with a unique century-old Folger "touch." And they blend to a flavor, not to a formula.

That's why Folger's gives you a richer more vigorous flavor, a distinctive, uniform flavor that coffee experts say has never been equalled. Have you tried Mountain-Grown Folger's lately?

Three Young Finalists in Steer Judging

CHICAGO (AP)—Steers raised by two farm girls and a boy were among the finalists today in competition for the grand champion steer award at the International Livestock Exposition.

The showdown was due later today. The three young finalists were Nancy Turner, 16, Champaign, Ill., whose steers, Julius, won the summer yearling Aberdeen Angus competition; Sue Lenderman, 17, Terre Haute, Ind., whose Black Magic won in the junior yearling Aberdeen Angus class, and 10-year-old Lily Lewter, Lubbock, Tex., exhibiting a senior Hereford calf named Bunny.

H. L. Stiegelmeier, Normal, Ill., was named Soybean King for the fourth time. The big job of choosing the show's top steer fell to Dr. A. C. Weber, 57, dean of agriculture at Kansas State College. His slap on the side of one of the nine steers still in competition meant fame and money for the favored animal's owner.

The owner of last year's grand champion, Janice Hullinger, 17, of Manly, Iowa, finished seventh in the senior calf class with her Shorty II. Nancy went to bed early Monday night to get an early start on grooming Julius for today's all-important judging. She said while she was "thrilled and proud" to get so far and was "hoping for the best," since a grand champion steer would bring considerably more cash at auction than a junior champion.

In other action Monday, Purdue University won the grand championship lamb honors for the second year in a row. The Boilemakers won the highly-prized blue ribbon for its 100-pound Southdown, "Big Chief." Pennsylvania State was runner-up with a 115-pound Hampshire named Penn's III.

In the cattle section of the International Amphitheatre, a $35,000 Aberdeen-Angus bull died Monday of a respiratory ailment. The 1,750-pound animal, which was not insured, died in spite of a special oxygen tent and antibiotics. The 2-year-old bull had been entered in the senior yearling competition by the J. Garrett Tolan Farms of Pleasant Plains, Ill.

Nationalist China To Veto Outer Mongolia for UN Seat

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Nationalist China announced officially today that it will veto Outer Mongolia's application, if necessary, to prevent its admission to the United Nations.

The Chinese decision appeared to doom any chance of success for the "package" admission of 18 countries to the world organization. Russia announced previously that it would block the deal unless Outer Mongolia was included in the list to be admitted.

At 10:55 p. m. the maindeck corridors and stairway were thronged with white-garbed sailors. They looked puzzled and frightened. Then, one by one, the cabin doors opened and Viggo Sand and his disastrous selection of shipmates paraded below-stairs to the brightly lighted lounge.

Since nothing Lynch did, however swift his decision might seem to be, was ever impromptu, I was puzzled by the place he chose to sit—the cushioned, enveloping corner of a big divan, near an end table on which stood a French hand phone.

By a trick of letting the silence become absolute, then snapping out a name in a kind of brisk bark, he made his victims jump. No one who begins a conversation with an advantage.

"Mr. Sand?"

"Yes," Sand jerked.

"In New York Mr. Deane and I made an understanding with you. The basis of that understanding was that on this voyage we would do our utmost to protect your interests. You must know that the fulfillment of that agreement still remains our first consideration."

"So-o-o-o?"

"Quite. During the past week certain events beyond our control have unavoidably altered, shall I say, the shape, the nature of that interest."

Viggo Sand nodded.

"As of this moment, however," Lynch continued, "your interest is quite clear. It is to bring this affair with all its ramifications into the open. Thus leave your reputation without stain. If you will follow my guidance I think you can gain credit in quarters which in the future you might find useful to you. The recovery of the gold, except by the most public and official means, you must recognize has become impossible."

Again, grudgingly, Viggo Sand inclined his head.

"The communications of the Victoria are famous. I should like to speak with Port au Prince. Possibly London. It is one reason why I have kept you waiting. I assure you it is relevant."

Lynch took the Fernch phone at his elbow off its cradle and extended it.

Sand rose, gurgled into it for a moment in what I took to be one of the Scandinavian languages and handed it back to Lynch.

"Get me the British Legation in Port au Prince, please. I should like to speak to the code clerk. Tell them it is Bertram Lynch here."

At the words "British Legation" Viggo Sand had suddenly stiffened and blown out his breath in an almost inaudible "pouf."

Viggo, as I have had occasion to observe before, was no fool. Many things which had puzzled him were now answered.

Only Lily Wyndam seemed to find the proceedings thus far in no way disappointing. Her gray eyes were bright with interest.

The connection came through surprisingly fast. Lynch sat forward.

"Are you there? Bertram Lynch here. Captain Heraux of the Haitian Gendarmerie sent you some messages for forwarding to London. Replies in yet? Got 'em decoded? Good. Read them to me, please. . . . What? No question of security's involved. Of course I'm who I say I am! . . . Right. . . . Right. . . . As well to be cautious!"

All eyes were on him.

"Dibble? . . . Right. . . . Paul Souhanil. . . . Unknown? . . . Oh, I see. . . . And Dr. Lund. . . . Right. . . . Right. . . . Thank you very much."

Again Lynch dangled the phone away from his head. He directed

Scientist Says Soviet H-Test Was In Gobi Desert

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese university scientist said today Soviet Russia exploded its latest hydrogen bomb in the vast Gobi Desert of Outer Mongolia.

Prof. Tadao Kiyokawa of Kyoto University estimated from scientific instruments placed at three points in Japan that the Russian test explosion occurred at about 11:30 p. m. CST on Nov. 22.

He based his report on atmospheric shock waves.

Kiyokawa is head of the special meteorological laboratory of Kyoto University's section of terrestrial physics.

Outer Mongolia is a Communist state lying between Red China and Soviet Russia in central Asia. It is the state which Moscow is proposing for United Nations membership over opposition of some Western nations.

French Dentists Revolt Against Social Security

PARIS (AP)—French dentists revolted today against the Social Security Administration and said they would stop pulling teeth Wednesday for 24 hours.

The Dental Surgeons Union of the Seine Department, which said half the dentists in France would stop whirling, claimed the Social Security Administration which pays for part of dental work made an agreement with a smaller union fixing fees too low.

During the walkout teeth will be pulled by dentist offices operated by the social security, by dental schools and by non-striking dentists.

Wear a bandage or piece of adhesive tape on it to protect your thumb when grating vegetables.

it out of Germany under the noses of the victors could be privately recovered. Then returned to the uses of the now illegal National Socialist Party. With the deduction of a handsome profit for our host. That fond belief has now been dissipated. Mr. Sand has realized his own involvement in so questionable an affair was ill judged. With his full cooperation the present whereabouts of the treasure will be duly reported to my government in London, and thence communicated to the other interested powers.

"I have little doubt that with proper engineering equipment the chests can be recovered. It will then become the business of diplomats and lawyers to adjudicate who has the best title to them. Happily, that is no concern of mine."

Russia Rejects Protest Against Holding Americans

BERLIN (AP) — Russia today rejected a United States protest against the arrest and detention of two U. S. congressmen and the wife of one and their military escort officer.

Russia said that the four-power occupation rules no longer apply to sovereign East Germany.

Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher Jr., the U. S. commandant in the divided city, said Russia's action "quite possibly opens the door to other incidents" involving the Western allies in the Communist sector of Berlin.

The Western powers do not recognize the "sovereign" East German government, Russia does.

Earlier, British Commandant Maj. Gen. R. C. Cottrell-Hill demanded "urgent" Soviet action to prevent East Berlin "peoples police" from firing on persons in the British sector.

Cottrell-Hill, in a letter to Soviet Commandant Maj. Gen. P. A. Dibrov, specifically protested a shooting incident Sunday in which Communist police wounded a West Berlin man.

The British commandant's protest came as American Commandant Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher Jr., prepared to drive to the Soviet to deliver a stern protest against the forcible detention of two American congressmen, the wife of one of the lawmakers and their escort officer.

Cab Driver to Take Lie Test

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A Canton, Ill., cab driver was arrested at Danville Monday night and brought here for a lie detector test in the investigation of the rape slaying of an 8-year-old girl at Canton, authorities disclosed today.

Arrested at a Danville bus station about 9 p. m. CST Monday was Lloyd Miller, 29. He denied any part in the slaying of Janice May, whose body was found in a Canton railroad yard Saturday.

Vermilion County Sheriff William Hendrickson said Miller denied after his arrest in Danville that he had anything to do with the assault and murder of the Canton girl. Miller made no other statements and did not explain why he left Canton, the sheriff reported.

Miller was brought from Danville to Springfield after two hours questioning and housed in the Sangamon county jail for the night.

State's Atty. Blaine Ramsey then drove from Canton to Springfield to direct the test on Miller, who has a wife and child living in or near Louisville, Ky. He has been rooming in Canton.

Hendrickson said Miller evidently came directly to Danville by bus after abandoning a taxicab near Pekin about 5 a. m. Sunday. Miller is charged with grand larceny for taking the taxicab.

Collinsville Used Car Dealer Faces 3 Years' Probation

CHICAGO (AP) — Elmer Adams, 40, Collinsville, Ill., used car dealer, faced three years probation today on a charge of automobile theft.

Adams was sentenced Monday on his plea of guilty before Criminal Court Judge Leslie E. Salter, who said he took into consideration the fact that Adams had no previous record.

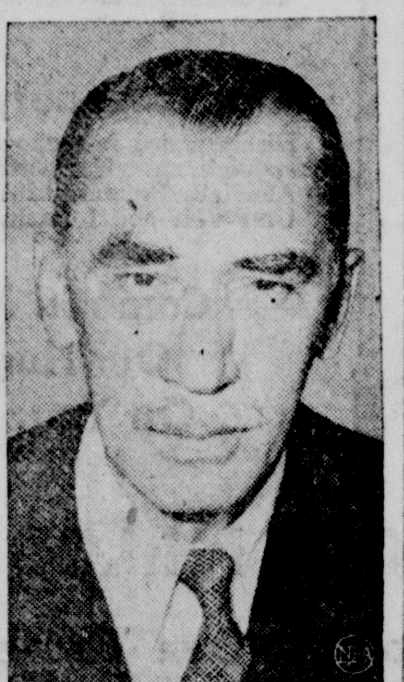

Four other men arrested with Adams in an alleged statewide auto theft ring were found innocent after a bench trial for lack of evidence.

They are Anthony Rybka, 37, Raymond Gruen, 38, and Frank Jerantowski, 33, all of Chicago, and Robert Lee St. Clair, 40, East St. Louis.

Adams testified the other four delivered stolen cars to his garage at Collinsville. He was accused of switching motors on the cars so that the original owners could not identify them.

He pleaded guilty to three counts of auto theft, and said he made $600 on each car.

Mother, 16, Hopes Birth of Twins Will Bring Husband Back

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A 16-year-old mother hoped today that the birth of twin boys would bring her Navy husband back to her.

The mother, Mrs. Patsy Cunitz, and the twins were healthy and happy in General Hospital. The twins were born three minutes apart Friday and were each 20 inches long and weighed 6 pounds, 12 ounces.

Mrs. Cunitz was married when she was 14 years old and a ninth grader at Minnehaha Academy. Her husband is David Cunitz, but the couple separated last July after he lost his job.

The 19-year-old husband entered the Navy at San Diego, Calif., Nov. 17. They have another child, 1-year-old Terry.

Mrs. Cunitz said she didn't regret "for one minute" getting married at 14 and having the responsibility of three children at 16.

"I'm sure everything will be patched up," she said.

The 1956 Buick ROADMASTER Riviera

Wonderful New Ride with a "Sense of Direction"

Over the years, Buick has always had a great ride. But each year, Buick engineers find new ways to better it. And in the 1956 Buick comes a ride beyond anything that has gone before—the sweetest ride in Buick history.

We could tell you the why of it . . .

About a brilliantly engineered new chassis of extra brawn and heft and precision balance . . .

About new direct-action, deep-oil shock absorbers that snub jars and jolts with full, firm authority—and add new levelness to the car's all-coil springing . . .

About new V-bracing and new housing rigidity that bulwark the full-length torque-tube drive—bringing new swerve-free steadiness . . .

Even about a whole new magic of angles and linkage in the front-end geometry to impart a track-true "sense of direction" to the front wheels.

But that's just a telling of it. Only in the driver's seat can you get the feel of it. Only there, too, can you sense the mighty sweep of Buick's great new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine, now stepped up to an all-time high in power and compression.

And only there can you really know the thrilling double-action take-off of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—the spirited action that gives you instant getaway response at merely part throttle, plus utter smoothness through every inch of travel.

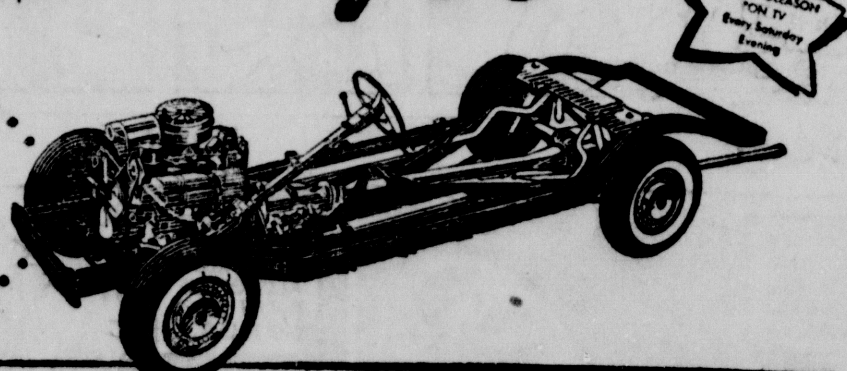

Come in for a visit, this week—just to sample at firsthand the sizzle and thrill and ride sweetness in the best Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

It's the '56 Buick—

Best Buick yet

Brawny Reason for the Best Ride Yet
is Buick's massive new chassis—and its brilliant engineering is shared by no other car in the world.

Oklahoma's Sooners Named National Grid Champion By UP Board of Coaches

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma's slick Sooners, who exploited speed, savvy and spirit for a perfect record and a berth in the Orange Bowl, were chosen the 1955 national college football champion today by the United Press Board of Coaches.

In the final balloting of the season, 24 of the 35 leading coaches who make up the United Press rating board picked Oklahoma best in the land. On a point basis, the Sooners received 323 out of a possible 350 for a 14-point margin over Rose Bowl-bound Michigan State.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's split-T powerhouse, which averaged 36.5 points in 10 games for the highest scoring record among major college teams, was voted the nation's No. 1 team for the second time in the past six seasons.

The coaches—the men who know the game the best—ranked Michigan State, Maryland, UCLA and Texas Christian in order behind Oklahoma. Ohio State, Georgia Tech, Notre Dame, Mississippi and Auburn rounded out the top 10 teams.

Seven For Michigan State
Michigan State was the No. 1 choice of seven coaches, while Maryland and UCLA each was picked by two. Of the 11 coaches who did not vote Oklahoma tops, six picked the Sooners second, one third, two fourth, one seventh and one eighth.

The Orange and the Rose bowls thus corralled the nation's top four teams. Oklahoma and Maryland, the only undefeated and untied teams in the major college ranks, collide in the Orange Bowl, while Michigan State and UCLA meet in the Rose Bowl.

The Cotton Bowl also will present an attraction between two teams in the top 10, with fifth-ranked Texas Christian pitted against ninth-ranked Mississippi. Georgia Tech, rated seventh, meets Pittsburgh, rated 11th, in the Sugar Bowl.

Eighth Year For Crown
Oklahoma was not a heavyweight team by big-time football standards, but it more than made up for that by its overall speed and the sound football and tremendous desire perennially instilled by popular Wilkinson. During their perfect-record campaign, the Sooners won the Big Seven crown for the eighth year in a row under Wilkinson, extended their victory string to 29 games, and brought to 105 the number of consecutive games in which they have scored.

The Sooners started the season slowly, with a 13-6 victory over North Carolina. But they gathered momentum the following week with a 26-14 triumph over Pitt, and then successfully trounced Texas, Kansas, Colorado, Kansas State, Missouri, Iowa State, Nebraska and Oklahoma A & M.

Pitt topped the second 10 group, followed in order by Southern California, Michigan and Texas A & M. Army and Duke were tied for 15th, trailed by West Virginia, Miami, Fla., and Iowa. Navy was tied with Stanford and Miami, Ohio for 20th place. Tennessee and Kentucky tied for 23rd.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

With basketball getting in full swing, we will renew the "you pick 'em" feature. Took a break between the close of football and the start of basketball, but barring unforeseen circumstances, this will be a weekly feature until the closing days of the basketball schedule.

In case you have forgotten, this is how we play "you pick 'em." Study the blank, circle the school you think will win and also list the score for the game of the week. Mail, send or bring the completed blank to The Register sports desk not later than 5 p. m. Friday and you are a full-fledged contestant. No entry fee, no prize, just fun. Winner announced the following week.

The Eldorado football banquet is scheduled for a week from tonight, Tuesday, Dec. 6. The banquet is sponsored annually by the Eldorado Lions and Rotary clubs. Letters will be awarded by the coaches to highlight the evening.

Oliver Rollins, Carrier Mills center, has made a favorable impression on the Mt. Vernon basketball writer. In the Mt. Vernon Register-News story on the Mt. Vernon-Carrier Mills game, played more than a week ago, Rollins came in for some fine comment and it was pointed out that Mt. Vernon had faced Carrier Mills with Rollins in the lineup six times and each time "Big Ollie" had scored more than 20 points.

Roy O'Neal, sports writer for the Carmi Times, recently expressed dissatisfaction with the Chicago Daily News' system of selecting its all-state football teams. He points out that Carmi had six players mentioned, but three of them were mentioned at positions at which they never played.

O'Neal thinks that the rating board of twelve coaches and the newspaper's sports staff is not large enough to do the job correctly. He adds that an additional 10 or 15 coaches on the board would be a big help.

Says Roy—"We can understand that it must be hard for the Daily News to please everybody—as a matter of fact, it's impossible. But it must also be difficult to dissatisfy so many persons."

Dressen Selects Kid Pitcher as Draft Choice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Manager Charley Dressen of the Washington Senators set the trade tempo today for the winter baseball meetings when he said "One good pitcher is worth three first basemen, and that's why I picked a pitcher in the draft."

Dressen stunned most experts Monday when he selected kid pitcher, Connie Grob, just one year out of class D baseball, as his top choice in the major league draft. Grob was taken from the Montreal roster, even though he had only an 11-9 won and lost record with Mobile of the Southern Association in 1955.

The big surprise was that Dressen did not pick a first baseman to replace Mickey Vernon, who was traded to the Boston Red Sox in a big off-season deal.

There was only one deal to enliven the winter activity, a player-for-player deal in which the Chicago Cubs traded relief pitching specialist Hal Jeffcoat to the Cincinnati Redlegs for catcher Hobie Landrith, a left-handed hitter.

Today, the top minor leagues begin their draft whirligig.

Eight of the 10 players picked up Monday in the major league draft were pitchers.

The only exceptions were ex-Giant outfielder Monte Irvin and ex-Chicago White Sox first baseman Bob Boyd. Irvin, after a .352 hitting year at Minneapolis, was grabbed by the Chicago Cubs. Boyd batted .309 at Houston and was taken from the Rochester roster.

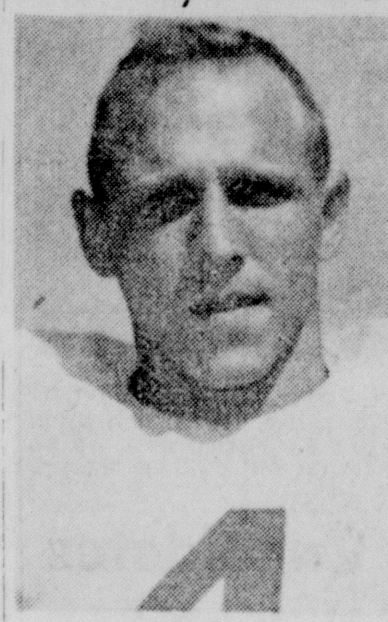

After Grob, the next choice was for another youngster, left-hander Jack McMahon, by the Pittsburgh Pirates from Denver.

The Cardinals chose 24-year-old Billy Muffett from Los Angeles. The Kansas City Athletics grabbed Bill Herriage off the Oakland roster.

The Cubs, only club to draft two players, named righthanded pitcher Vito Valentini as their next choice. He was drafted from Toronto and had a 9-15 mark at Charleston, W. Va., of the American Association.

Milwaukee took wild-throwing Lou Slesater from Columbus of the American Association for another trial.

Schneider Named Most Valuable Grid Player at SIU

Jack Schneider

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Jack Schneider, 25-year-old senior from Glen Carbon, has been selected by his teammates as Southern Illinois University's most valuable grid player.

Schneider, who missed the final game of the season because of a knee injury, led Southern in rushing and scoring. In nine games he gained 570 yards in 87 carries—an average of 6.6 yards per try. He scored 48 points.

A four-year letterman in football, Schneider captained the 1954 squad. He also played two years of service ball in Alaska while on a four-year tour of duty with the Air Force. In I. I. A. C. conference play, he was second in rushing and second in scoring.

Schneider is married and has a two-month-old daughter.

Alumni Establish Saluki Awards

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Establishment of "Southern Illinois University Alumni Saluki Awards" has been approved by the SIU Alumni association board of directors, it was announced here today.

Robert Odaniel, director of the SIU Alumni Office, said the awards will provide for an undergraduate student's educational expenses for tuition, fees, room, board, and books. The purpose, as approved by the alumni board, will be "to encourage and assist deserving students who will be selected on the basis of satisfactory academic record (based upon the admission standards of the university), good character, economic need, and athletic ability."

Odaniel says the association will accept the funds for such awards but that they will be administered by the SIU Scholarship and Loans committee. Recommendations of persons to receive them will be made by a university committee.

The director said the awards program is one approved by the SIU Athletic Council, the SIU Scholarship and Loans committee, the IIA, NCAA, and NCA.

Missouri Valley, Juniata College to Play In Tangerine Bowl

It will be the eighth post-season bowl appearance for the high-scoring Vikings from Missouri and their first in the Tangerine classic. They have played three times in Tampa's Cigar Bowl.

Stonefort won the preliminary 28-9 and then won the main game 87-25.

Colorado Back First Selection In Player Draft

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers, whose tough line begrudges every inch of ground gained, had added help in the secondary today in the surprise selection of quarterback Gary Glick of Colorado A&M as their bonus choice in the National Football league draft.

The Steelers won the "bonus" pick at the league's 21st selection meeting and passed over such offensive football players as Howie (Hopalong) Cassidy of Ohio State and Earl Morrall of Michigan State in favor of Glick, one of the top defensive backs in the nation.

"We drew to our weakness," Coach Walt Kiesling said as he explained why the Steelers took Glick as a sleeper choice. "He's a do-everything ball player, and while we plan to use him on the defense, we could send him to quarterback on the offense."

The surprise selection of Glick set the pattern of the owners who all but ignored All America college players as they made the first three rounds of the draft at the earlier than usual date to avoid any possible legal action with Canadian promoters.

Four All-Americans
Only four of the 1955 All America first team were picked up in the three rounds of selections, a total of 37 players drafted.

Cassidy went on the first round to the Detroit Lions, and Bob Pelletieri, center from Maryland, went on the first round to the Philadelphia Eagles.

Tackle Bruce Bosley of West Virginia went to San Francisco and tackle Norman Masters of Michigan State to the Chicago Cardinals, both as second round choices.

Pittsburgh explained they passed over Cassidy and tapped Art Davis of Mississippi State in the first round in anticipation of the return from service of Johnny Lattner of Notre Dame and Paul Cameron of UCLA.

The Steelers were in touch with Glick directly after the bonus choice and said the Aggie back assured them he was interested in professional football.

Four Years Service
Glick, 25, is a veteran of four years service in the Navy. He intercepted 13 passes during the past two seasons, returned punts, ran the ball for 641 yards, threw passes adequately, scored seven touchdowns, threw two touchdown passes, kicked 15 conversions and booted a field goal in his only attempt.

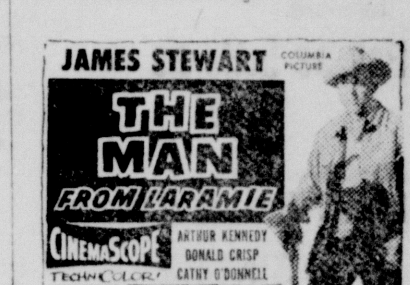

Only two linemen were selected in the first round.
Morrall went to San Francisco. Other first round choices were Joe Childress of Oklahoma to the Cardinals; Lenny Moore of Penn State to Baltimore; Menan Schriever, an end from Texas, to the Bears; Charley Horton, of Vanderbilt, to Los Angeles; Ed Vereb of Maryland to Washington; Proton Carpenter of Arkansas to Cleveland, and Jack Losch of Miami (Fla.) to Green Bay.

Los Angeles also got Joe Marcone of West Virginia from the Giants as a draft choice in a previously consummated player trade.

The teams will conclude the player draft—each has 22 choices left—at Los Angeles next January.

France Ends Boycott of UN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—France returned to the United Nations General Assembly today, ending a two-month boycott because of a decision to debate French policy in Algeria.

Ambassador Herve Alphand planned to lead his French delegation back into a plenary meeting of the assembly this afternoon.

The French return to the assembly virtually on their own terms. They walked out Sept. 30 when the world parliament voted, 28-27, to put the problem of Algeria on its agenda for full debate. France contended that the Algerian question is an internal matter in which the United Nations has no right to interfere.

Last Friday, without a dissenting vote, the assembly struck the Algerian question from its agenda for this session and opened the way for France's return.

Syrian Mobs Demonstrate Against West

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Ten thousand demonstrators swarmed through the streets of Damascus today shouting anti-Western and anti-Israel slogans.

Police threw up heavy guards outside the American, British, French and Turkish embassies.

Other police dispersed the mob without incident but similar demonstrations broke out elsewhere in Syria.

The demonstrations were called against the partition of Palestine and the creation of the Jewish state of Israel eight years ago.

The demonstrations also marked the 15th anniversary of Syria's loss of the province of Alexandretta to Turkey.

More than 75,000 students poured out of schools and paraded in the main streets of Syria's biggest cities according to reports reaching the ministry of interior.

In Damascus itself, mobs raced through the streets shouting "Down with Western colonialism" and carrying banners blaming the United States and Britain for "forcing" the establishment of Israel in the middle of the Arab world.

TVA Proposes to Issue Bonds to Finance Plants

COLUMBIA, Tenn. (AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority today revealed its proposal to issue revenue bonds for financing new power plants in its distribution area.

But TVA Director Harry T. Curtis said the agency would continue to rely on federal appropriations.

Speaking Monday night to members of the Middle Tennessee Technical Society, Curtis said proceeds from revenue bonds would be "used in addition to appropriations and power earnings."

The plan, scheduled to be heard by a House committee in January, stemmed from Congress' refusal two years ago to grant requested appropriations for beginning construction of any new TVA power plants.

Proposals in the plan, which would be presented as an amendment to the TVA act, includes issuance of bonds whose "only security would be TVA's power revenue"; annual payments to the U. S. Treasury as a return on appropriations invested in power facilities; and using surplus revenue to retire appropriations.

A-Sub Back in Port After 25,000 Miles Without Refueling

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The atomic submarine Nautilus was back in port today—the first vessel ever to travel 25,000 miles without refueling.

The Nautilus, commissioned here seven months ago, reached its milestone over the weekend with Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas and top officials of the Atomic Energy Commission aboard on a "familiarization cruise."

Thomas said the Nautilus "has far exceeded the Navy's most optimistic expectations," and added its performance "has proved the feasibility of nuclear power for other ships."

Begin Over-Counter Sale, Mailing of License Plates Thursday

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Over-the-counter sale of 1956 motor vehicle license plates will begin Thursday in both the Chicago and Springfield offices, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter announced today.

Mailing of license plates applied for during the reassignment period and through the month of November will be started on the same day. Mr. Carpenter said.

The two offices are open from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. weekdays. On Saturdays, the Springfield office is open from 8:30 a. m. to noon and the Chicago office from 8:30 to 1 p. m.

During the 1955 licensing period, more than 1,400,000 sets of plates were sold at the two locations, Mr. Carpenter said.

Fire Leaves Two Families Homeless

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—Eleven members of two families, including seven children, were left homeless when fire swept through a flat building Monday night. Two women, Mrs. Eugene Rogers and Mrs. Herbert Hofeld, were injured when they became trapped on the second floor and jumped to the street.

Actress Injured During TV Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Veteran actress Nanette Fabray recovered in a hospital today from a king-size headache she got Monday night when a scenery weight struck her during the Sid Caesar television show.

A 20-pound pipe fell from somewhere above backstage just as Miss Fabray had completed a skit and was heading for a costume change. It crashed to the floor next to her and bounced up, striking her on the head. The 9-foot-long pipe also hit dancer Buddy Schwab, 25.

Caesar announced at the end of the show that there had been an accident backstage, but gave no details. The television audience did not see the mishap.

Bondsman Picked Up With $110,000 Cash

OMAHA (AP)—Federal agents tried to figure out today how bondsman Ralph James King happened to be traveling about with $110,000 in cash on him.

King, a 37-year-old Council Bluffs, Iowa, resident, was picked up at Omaha Union Station late Monday with about $30,000 crammed into his pockets, mostly in $100 and $500 bills. In his car, a paper sack on the floor contained $80,000.

The bondsman protested that he always carries from $20,000 to $30,000 with him. The extra amount, King said, was to buy a building to expand his bail bond business in Omaha. He explained that he doesn't like banks and does his business from his pocket.

Five Million Indians Greet Soviet Leaders at Calcutta

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Soviet Communist Party Chief Nikita Khrushchev rode like twin Buddhas through a hysterical welcome by over five million Indians today.

The greeting was the wildest yet given the two Soviet leaders. They sat with upturned hands, Indian style, as they were whisked by car from Dum Dum Airport to the heart of this teeming city of millions.

A crowd of five million men, women and children lined the 7½ mile route shouting, "Hindi Russia, bhai bhai," which means, "Indians and Russians are brothers."

Women blew much shells and showered the beaming Russians with flower petals. Thousands of Soviet and Indian flags were waved wildly.

Stassen Challenges Stevenson to Debate Farm Policy

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Harold E. Stassen Monday night accused Adlai E. Stevenson of trying to "fool Minnesota farmers" and issued a challenge to the Democratic presidential aspirant to debate farm policy with him in Minneapolis.

Stassen, former Minnesota governor and now disarmament advisor to the President, said Stevenson in recent Minnesota speeches "endeavored to fool the Minnesota farmers regarding the facts" of the farm situation.

Stassen told delegates to the 37th annual Minnesota Farm Bureau convention: "I believe agricultural income will move upward next year if the President's program is adopted."

Only Ambitious Candidates Want Early Announcement, Ives Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.) said today that "only ambitious, potential candidates" for the 1956 GOP presidential nomination are anxious for President Eisenhower to make an early announcement of 1956 plans.

He made this comment after he and other Eisenhower partisans were given fresh cause for optimism that the President may seek reelection despite a heart attack two months ago.

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee visited Mr. Eisenhower at Gettysburg, Pa., Monday and said he felt "very much encouraged" that the President would run again. He made it clear, however, that the Chief Executive did not say or indicate what his second term decision will be.

Sees No Early Announcements

He added that he does not expect any official announcement from Mr. Eisenhower for several months.

On the Democratic side, Adlai E. Stevenson chided Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams for criticizing Stevenson's call for a "moderate" approach to national issues.

"I should say I hope Governor Williams is not in favor of immoderation," Stevenson told reporters at Jacksonville, Fla. "Perhaps he didn't read my speech and I should send him a copy."

Ives was reminded that some Republicans, notably Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland, have indicated a relief that Mr. Eisenhower's announcement ought to come by early January. This would give presidential aspirants time to enter state primaries in case Mr. Eisenhower should announce his retirement.

Says GOP Willing To Wait

"That comes only from ambitious, potential candidates," Ives commented. "Everyone else among Republicans wants him to run again and are willing to wait. We don't want to rush him."
